CLEARANCE BOOK SALE TO OFFER GREAT BARGAINS

Join Richland Library Friends and Foundation on January 16

Columbia, SC- If you set a New Year's resolution to read more in 2020, the Richland Library Friends and Foundation wants to help with reaching that goal. The organization plans to host the Clearance Book Sale from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m., Thursday, January 16 at the Richland Library Operations Center (130 Lancewood Drive).

The Clearance Book Sale is the final opportunity to enjoy some great deals on books, music and movies before the Richland Library Operations Center closes a few months for renovations. In one of the designated rooms, customers can buy five paperbacks for one dollar. All of the remaining materials in the building (hardbacks; CDs; DVDs; puzzles; games; etc.) are two items for one dollar.

Don't forget to bring your own bag. There are more than 40,000 gently-used items to choose from and add to your book, music and movie collections, and they're available in all genres for children, teens and adults.

Please note, the Richland Library Operations Center is undergoing construction from February to May 2020 for maintenance and improvements. While the Spring Book Sale is not taking place, the Richland Library Friends and Foundation looks forward to seeing everyone at the Summer Book Sale in June 2020.

In the meantime, the Richland Library Friends and Foundation is still collecting gently-used books, CDs or DVDs for future book sales. If you're interested in donating, click here.
