

Kids IN PRINT 2021

LIKE TO DRAW OR WRITE? GET PUBLISHED!

Richland Library's literary magazine, Kids in Print, showcases the creative talents of young people, ages 6-18, across the Midlands. We accept poetry, stories, short plays, essays, drawings, photographs and more.

Kids in Print is not a competition. We are not able to publish everything, so we include a variety of creative work that is original, well-crafted and contributes to the overall magazine. Congratulations on being brave and expressing yourself – whether you're published or not, you've succeeded!

The Rules + Submission

Entries are due by January 14, 2021. Incomplete entries will not be considered.

Submit your work via e-mail to KidsinPrint@richlandlibrary.com.

Be sure to include all of the information requested for each entry (name, address, etc.). Each contributor may submit up to 10 entries. Each entry should be in a separate email with its own submission form.

Richland Library reserves the right to make editorial changes.

Authors:

- Type or write your essay, poem or short story in black ink on 8.5 x 11 inch white paper.
- Written submissions are limited to one page, single-spaced and may be included in the body of the e-mail or attached as a separate document.
- Links to Google Docs, Dropbox or other file sharing sites will not be accepted.
- Writers are strongly encouraged to submit their work online but if they are unable to do so, submissions can be mailed to:
1431 Assembly Street, Columbia, SC 29201

Artists:

- Draw your work vertically in black ink on 8.5 x 11 inch white paper.
- No notebook paper, copies or tracings, please.
- Digital submissions must be scanned. Photos of images are not accepted.
- Original artwork can be submitted digitally or mailed to: 1431 Assembly Street, Columbia, SC 29201. Artwork will not be returned.

Photographers:

- Submit high resolution black and white photographs. Images should be scanned at the highest possible resolution.
- We reserve the right to disqualify incomplete entries and/or contributors who are unable to submit a high-resolution photograph or print of at least 300 dpi. (Photographs taken with smartphones are exempt from this requirement but must be submitted at their highest resolution.)

Helpful Hints

- Teachers: Want to use Kids in Print as a class project? That's great! Please make sure the entries are on more than one topic. This helps us showcase a wide variety of creative work.
