WHAT: Black History Month Fair 2021:
The Jubilation Begins

WHEN: 10:30 a.m. - 7:30 p.m.,
Saturday, January 30

WHERE: Richland Library Online

WHO: Free & open to the public

Richland Library is starting the celebration a little early. Please join us for Black History Month Fair 2021: The Jubilation Begins from 10:30 a.m. - 7:30 p.m., Saturday, January 30. The annual program, which is free and open to the public, is moving online.

We're highlighting African-American history, contributions and culture during three featured events:

The Magic of Houdini

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Experience a mystical and magical virtual performance with African-American magician, mentalist and escape artist Houdini. He touches on issues of negative peer pressure, anti-bullying, respect, good decision-making, believing in yourself, and most of all, the desire to achieve your dreams. Register here.

Keeping Your Kids Mentally Fit in Today's World

12 - 1 p.m.

As COVID-19 demands a new form of education, socialization and living, life for younger ones can become stressful. Our Social Work Department and a local teacher are discussing simple techniques to teach your children how to exercise and build mental muscles to stay mentally fit. Register here.

Teen Talk: The Youth Perspective

6 - 7:30 p.m.

YouTuber Briana T. Ford and Mental Health Specialist Taurus Sanders lead a candid discussion of life seen vicariously through the eyes of teens. They plan to cover how the effects of COVID-19, current racial tensions and the new norm from 2020 have impacted the mental well-being of teens as well as how they're coping with it.
