RICHLAND LIBRARY OFFERS CAREER ASSISTANCE IN THE NEW YEAR

Meet with One of 30+ Career Coaches Online or over the Phone

Columbia, SC- Whether searching for current employment or navigating through a career change, Richland Library is looking to jumpstart your success in 2021.

Meet with one of our more than 30 career coaches. Assistance is available online by visiting richlandlibrary.com or over the phone by calling 803-929-3400.

Our career coaches can tailor appointments to meet your specific needs, provide a career assessment, and share helpful information on resumes, job interviews, networking, online applications and who's hiring.

When it comes to career development, our career coaches want the focus to be on defining yourself. Here are some helpful tips to keep in mind:

- What is your mission statement - Reflect your values and provide direction for your decision-making.
- Does your brand have growth potential - Create a brand that allows for adaptation.
- How does your brand benefit the employer - Include specific accomplishments that are relevant to your potential employers.
- Which employer is the best fit for you - Research and ask questions that reveal which organizations align with your priorities and values.
