

2022 Ethel Bolden Minority Fellowship

The Richland Library Friends and Foundation awards the Ethel Bolden Minority Fellowship annually to honor and recognize Ethel Bolden's years of service to the Richland County community and its libraries. The $3,500 fellowship seeks to encourage and provide financial support to students from underserved/underrepresented ethnic and racial groups who are working toward an undergraduate or graduate degree and interested in working for Richland Library.

Eligibility Requirements

Individuals are eligible to submit an application for the Ethel Bolden Minority Fellowship if they:

- are a legal resident of South Carolina;
- have been fully admitted to a South Carolina university or college;
- are working on an undergraduate or graduate degree;
- have demonstrated leadership abilities through participation in community service or other activities;
- have shown outstanding academic performance; and
- are a member of an underserved/underrepresented racial or ethnic group.

Application Requirements

The following information must be submitted/postmarked by Wednesday, June 15, 2022:

- proof of admission into a South Carolina college or university in any field of study;
- completed application for the Ethel Bolden Minority Fellowship;
- current résumé;
- 300 word essay that highlights how the applicant will uniquely support the library and the diverse communities we serve. If applicant has experience with oral or historical storytelling, please include this information in the essay. Academic, work or volunteer experience that emphasizes competencies should also be included; and
- two letters of reference from individuals who are able to describe the applicant's academic, work and/or community service achievements. References should be placed in sealed envelopes and post-marked no later than Wednesday, June 15, 2022.

Application Submission

Please submit all required documents to:

Tina Gills

Development Director
tgills@richlandlibrary.com
Richland Library
1431 Assembly Street, Columbia, SC 29201

Frequency and Amount of Awards

The Ethel Bolden Minority Fellowship will be awarded* annually in the amount of $3,500. Fellow will receive payment as partial upfront (50%) and successful completion remaining (50%).

Deadline for Application

All requested forms must be postmarked by Wednesday, June 15, 2022.

Notification of Awards

Applicants will be notified regarding their status by Friday, July 15, 2022.

* The selection committee reserves the right to elect not to award the fellowship if it does not receive at least one complete application from a candidate meeting the high standards of the fellowship.

Ethel Bolden
Minority Fellowship

2022 APPLICATION

Personal Information

First Name Middle Last Name

Street Address

City State ZIP

Phone E-mail

Pronouns

Are you a South Carolina resident? YES NO
Please check one

Indicate if you are a member of an underserved/underrepresented racial or ethnic group.
Please check one

- Hispanic, Latino or Spanish origin
- Black or African American
- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander
- Other (please indicate):

Application Requirements

In order for the application to be considered, applicant must submit this completed form, proof of admission, résumé, essay, and reference letters.

Two letters of reference must be mailed in separate sealed envelopes to the address indicated and postmarked no later than Wednesday, June 15, 2022.

Direct application materials and questions to:

Tina Gills
Development Director
Richland Library
1431 Assembly Street
Columbia, SC 29201

803. 929. 3424
tgills@richlandlibrary.com

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 2022.

