RICHLAND LIBRARY WELCOMES FALL ENTREPRENEUR-IN-RESIDENCE STARLITT MILLER

Entrepreneur Takes Unconventional Pathways To Building Businesses

(Columbia, SC) - Start, develop and scale your business ventures. Richland Library welcomes its next Entrepreneur-in-Residence, Starlitt Miller.

Miller is a serial entrepreneur that has taken unconventional pathways through education, building business, and other pursuits in her life.

During her residency, which runs from October 2022 – January 2023, Miller plans to share her expertise with entrepreneurs and small business owners through an array of free programs and one-on-one coaching sessions.

Miller's corporate and educational background is in business operations, accounting, workflow strategy, leveraging technology for operations, and the performing arts. Her present mission is to empower the average non-accountant decision maker with their own financial data so that they can grow their businesses strategically and is doing so through her service-based company SAABS and tech start-up Transity Tools, Inc.
